HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION congratulating Bridget Sloan on being named the all-around world champion at the World Gymnastics Championships.

Whereas, Bridget Sloan began gymnastics in 1996 at the age of three;

Whereas, Her strengths were recognized and honed after she joined the USA Gymnastics Child Elite National Team at the age of 10;

Whereas, Bridget's gymnastic skills took her to the United States Championships in 2007, 2008, and 2009;

Whereas, In 2008, Bridget qualified for the Olympic Games in Beijing, China, and earned a silver medal with her team;

Whereas, Bridget won her first all-around title at the 2009 Visa Championships held at the American Airlines Center in Dallas, Texas, in August 2009, coming from behind in the final rotation;

Whereas, Bridget competed in the 2009 World Gymnastics Championships held in London, England, and was recognized for her overall skill and performance in the vault, uneven bars, balance beam, and floor exercise;

Whereas, Bridget's performance earned her the title of All-Around World Champion, an achievement that is a direct result of the passion, hard work, and determination of

Bridget, her coach, and her family;

Whereas, Although Bridget has achieved many extraordinary feats by the age of 17, her achievements have not lessened her humility and sportsmanship; she remains a model athlete and competitor;

Whereas, As a student at Tri-West High School, Bridget shows maturity and discipline in academics as well as gymnastics, embracing the present while keeping an eye to the future; and

Whereas, Bridget Sloan is a role model for the youth of Indiana and is sure to inspire generations of young women and future gymnasts for years to come: Therefore,
